

F.A.Q. – for the Guests

What if I have an allergy or dietary restriction?

If you have an allergy or dietary restriction, please let the bride and groom know. They will make sure your restrictions are included in their final guest list. If it was missed or you need to discuss something unusual, please contact us directly at info@templessugarbush.ca.

If your allergies are severe and you are more comfortable providing your own food, we are happy to accommodate.

When should I arrive on the wedding day?

We suggest that you arrive 20 to 30 minutes before the ceremony.

What time is the reception scheduled to end?

Weddings at Temple's end at 1:00am. If you are calling a taxi or getting picked up, please have your ride planned for 1:00am

What should I wear?

Although there is no special dresscode for a wedding at Temple's, many of our couple's choose to get married outside in our beautiful woodland or garden sites. Please come prepared for the season and weather, with proper footwear and outer clothing. We have plenty of space for coats and boots so you can put your dancing shoes on.

Is Temple's wheelchair accessible?

Temple's is accessible with ramps into the reception hall and accessible washrooms on the main floor. We have a wheelchair for any guest who might need it, and one of our friendly staff will be more than happy to assist. If you are concerned about the accessibility, please contact us at info@templessugarbush.ca

Can I buy maple syrup while I am at Temple's?

Of course! We have our maple syrup available during weddings for sale in various sizes. Ask the bartender for help.
